

Dear GNOYO Members,

To kick off our 20th season, I am delighted to announce the fourth annual GNOYO Fall Retreat! The retreat will include an introduction to the fall repertoire, ice breakers, outdoor and indoor activities, and sectionals featuring prominent musician educators from the region. This will be a time for musicians to get to know and interact with their peers and respective conductors. Students will be chaperoned by GNOYO Staff, Counselors and the Music Director. The retreat is a mandatory element in the program that will enrich and nurture our GNOYO community.

The Tentative Retreat Schedule:

1. Friday September 20th, (evening): Philharmonia – dinner (Allergies and food requirements are respected) – orientation – ice-breakers – music activities
2. Saturday September 21st, (morning): Breakfast – sectional/orchestra rehearsals – team building activities – lunch (Allergies and food requirements are respected) – check out – Philharmonia departs/Sinfonia arrives
3. Saturday September 21st, (afternoon): Sinfonia – orientation – lunch – ice breaker – sectional/orchestra rehearsals
4. Saturday, September 21st, (evening): Dinner – team building activities – check out – Sinfonia departs/ Symphony arrives.

Welcome to GNOYO's 2013 retreat at the Solomon Episcopal Conference Center!

This is going to be a memorable experience for all of us!

Every effort has been made to make this retreat to run smoothly, but we may need to make adjustments when we get there. Please remain flexible and keep a positive attitude.

Let's have a great retreat!
